

CITY COUNCIL MEETING
OCTOBER 17, 1990

LETTER OF COMMENDATION
REGARDING CITY EMPLOYEE,
RANDY MCVINNIE

cc-9
cc-34

Deputy City Clerk Perrin presented to the City Council a letter, set forth below, received from Mr. Terry Piazza commending City of Lodi employee, Randy McVinnie of the Public Works Department, for his brave action in apprehending a thief and holding him until the police arrived.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Last week, I believe the 11th, while we were gone, my garage was entered and my grandson's bike was stolen. This is a daily occurrence, unworthy of note, except for one unusual item.

Mr. Randy McVinnie, a Public Works Department employee, saw the bike being taken away. He acted in a way that exemplifies him as a man with great integrity.

He apprehended the thief and held him for the police; an act that these days could be very dangerous.

In these times of "let George do it", and "I don't want to get involved", he took it upon himself to act. I commend him as an example to us all.

Mr. McVinnie is a credit to the City as a fine example of a public employee, and as a citizen.

Please attach this letter of commendation to Mr. McVinnie's personnel file.

Dear Randy:

I want to add my appreciation to you for your quick thinking in the recent attempted bicycle theft. Your willingness to get involved shows your concern for your fellow man.

Your action in this matter reflects highly on you as an individual and has helped to project a favorable image of City employees.

Good job!

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Peterson
